Argyle Sweater, The
Hilburn, Scott

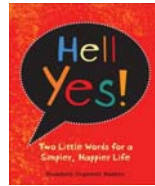

'The Argyle Sweater' fills a niche with intelligent humour, outstanding wit, and pure, unending fun. A grown-up's comic inspired by a childlike imagination, Hilburn's breakout talent charms followers with an infinite array of situations featuring dogs, cats, cops, bees, wolves, game shows, bears, telephones, sports, zebras, nursery-rhyme icons and cavemen, with an occasional evil scientist added to the mix.

Hell Yes!

Cogswell Baskin, Elizabeth

Happiness comes from asking and answering one simple question: Is it a "Hell yes!?" If not, then it's a "Hell no!" - so don't waste your time with it. Here is a secret and simple philosophy (an attitude, really) for living a happier life. Asking that one little question helps readers refocus their lives by inspiring them to simplify, purge, and not overcommit.

Cats' House, The
Walker, Bob

Any cat would give up one of its nine lives for a shot at living in the Cats' House, a wacky fantasyland for cats created by Bob Walker and his wife, Frances Mooney. They've turned their California home into a feline fun house. It's the perfect mix of cat-friendly and cat-fantasy. The house is all cat, and nine of them call it home. Bob Walker shows us the cats' living space, giving us a peek into 140 feet of brightly coloured aerial walkways, spiral staircases, giant scratching posts, and playful peepholes.

I See Stupid People
Caldwell, Cheryl

There's a lot of stupid out there and Caldwell channels it in her new offbeat, hilarious, and hiply illustrated book, 'I See Stupid People'. If stupid stresses you out, then you need to check this out. 'I See Stupid People' is a little pick-me-up for dealing with (and working with) the generally annoying and IQ-challenged breed of humans. And they are everywhere. "So when's the wizard going to get back to you about that brain?" and "You drive me to drink. Thank you." These are just a few witticisms shared with readers.

Nature of Friendship, The
Koch, Maryjo

Nature and friendship are alive in Maryjo Koch's book, 'The Nature of Friendship'. Sure to be a classic, this elegant and beautifully illustrated gift book soars with its natural subjects. Borrowing from her archives, Koch presents nature watercolours that showcase birds, insects, plant life, and water creatures, and celebrate the universal joy of relating to a true friend. Bright colours, natural settings, and nature's little friends convey sentiments simply stated, yet carefully observed.
