Where Memories Lie

Crombie, Deborah

Detective Inspector Gemma James and her family are back in their Notting Hill house when Gemma receives a plea for help from her neighbour, Erika Rosenthal. Erika has never shared much of her past, other than telling Gemma that she and her husband came to London before the war as refugees from Nazi Germany. Her long-dead husband was a historian and was found murdered. His murder was never solved. But now the elderly woman needs Gemma's help. It's a cold case and one that Gemma has neither the time nor the resources to investigate. But then a tragic death places the investigation firmly in the present - and into the hands of her partner Duncan Kincaid. Determined to exact justice both Gemma and Duncan hunt down a chilling killer in a case that will have lasting repercussions for everyone involved...

Hemingway Deadlights

Atkinson, Michael

It is 1956 and Hemingway has spent much of the year at his home in Key West, hiding from tourists and autograph hunters. But a friend's sudden death rouses Papa from his idyll. To say that the cause of death is suspicious is to put it lightly. It's not every day that a part-time smuggler is impaled on a harpoon.

A witty, literate, and action-filled debut, 'Hemingway Deadlights' catches the famed author in his later years, battling to solve the injustices in a flawed world.

Crack in the Lens, A

Hockensmith, Steve

Five years ago, when Old Red was a cowpoke in San Marcos, he had a sweetheart - a fallen woman at the local house of ill repute. They had made plans but before they made their big move, his fiancée was murdered and the case swept under the rug by the local authorities.

Now, Old Red is determined to find out what really happened and to finally find a measure of justice for his beloved. But Big Red and Old Red find themselves facing a wall of silence and in some of the worst situations of their lives: ensnared in a riot at the local cathouse, on the wrong end of a lynching party and perhaps worst of all - having to do the one thing you never want to do in the state of Texas: steal horses.

Neptune Avenue

Cohen, Gabriel

Brooklyn South homicide detective Jack Leightner, a deeply principled cop, hears about the murder of an old Russian friend on Neptune Avenue - and then is disturbed to find himself increasingly drawn to the man's stunning widow, Eugenia. She informs Jack of her husband's troubles with Semyon Balakutis, a local nightclub operator and extortionist. Meanwhile, a mysterious stranger in central Brooklyn is killing young women and posing them as suicides.

From the Russian émigré community of Brighton Beach to the racially charged neighbourhood of Crown Heights, from the crimes of World War II to the harshness of his own father, Jack's latest cases plunge him deep into the roots of why men act in anger - and into the eternal mystery of love.

City of Silver

Alfieri, Annamaria

Potosí, the richest city in the Western Hemisphere, finds its future threatened when the King of Spain discovers that the coins the city has been circulating throughout the world are not pure silver. The city must prepare to be judged by the King's top prosecutor, and by the Grand Inquisitor.

In the midst of this tension, Mother Maria Santa Hilda finds herself at odds when the daughter of a wealthy man mysteriously dies in her care. Despite the fact that it looks as though the girl committed suicide, she has her buried at the convent, a decision a powerful enemy will use against her. Her life at stake, the Abbess and her fellow sisters find themselves in a race against time to prove the true cause of the girl's death.

Spin

Rave, Robert

Taylor Green is a corn-fed young man from the Midwest who, through being at the right place at the right time, gets hired by New York public relations dominatrix, Jennifer Weinstein. Taylor soon becomes Jennie's right-hand man, getting drawn into her world of sex, greed, power, and fame. As the perks of his job - such as rubbing elbows with big-name celebrities, getting reservations at the hottest restaurants, and receiving free designer clothes - increase, he soon finds himself struggling to balance his own reality with that of her drug-fuelled, high-intensity world. Taylor must choose to either leave the cutthroat PR industry, and his new glamorous, morally-compromising lifestyle, or let his life continue to spin totally out-of-control.

Ten Little Herrings

Tyler, L C

When obscure crime writer Ethelred Tressider vanishes from his home, his indefatigable agent, Elsie Thirkettle, is soon on his trail. Finding him proves surprisingly easy. Bringing him home is another matter. Having followed Ethelred to a hotel in the French Loire, she find herself confined there with him after a prominent philatelist is murdered. Elsie is torn between her natural desire to interfere in the police investigation and her urgent need to escape to the local chocolatier. Ethelred, meanwhile, seems to know more about the murder than he is letting on. It does not help his peace of mind when two further guests are poisoned. Finally the time comes when Elsie must assemble the various suspects in the Dining Room, and reveal the killer's true identity...

Wolfman, The

Pekearo, Nicholas

Marlowe Higgins has had a hard life. Since being dishonourably discharged after a tour in Vietnam, he's been in and out of prison, moving from town to town. He can't stay in one place too long - every full moon he kills someone. For years he struggled with his affliction, until he found a way to use this unfortunate curse for good - he only kills really bad people. Settling at last in the small town of Evelyn, Higgins works at a local restaurant and even has a friend, Daniel Pearce, one of Evelyn's two police detectives. One night everything changes. It seems Marlowe Higgins isn't the only monster lurking in the area. A fiendish serial killer, known as the Rose Killer, is brutally murdering young girls all around the county. Higgins targets the killer as his next victim, but on the night of the full moon, things go drastically wrong...

Leviathan

Golemon, David Lynn

The ships of the world are under attack, attacks so sudden and vicious that many ships are lost without a single distress call. The navies of the world start a frenzied search, but even these ships disappear without a trace. Enter the Event Group, the most secret organisation in US history. Armed with proof that history is repeating itself, the Group finds themselves in the grasp of an insane genius straight out of the pages of Jules Verne. Legend comes to life in the form of Leviathan, the most advanced undersea vessel in history. She will stop at nothing to save the seas and to render justice to humankind for a world that has long been dying, a world Leviathan plans to take forever, unless the Event Group can stop her!

Hens Reunited

Diamond, Lucy

Katie, Georgia and Alice had been friends for what seemed like forever. Katie is a control freak, and hated the loss of independence when she married at the tender age of 20. Now, with a failed marriage behind her and an embittered Mum always going on about all men being bastards, it's not surprising that when her current man pops the question, she says no. Hard-bitten gossip columnist Georgia lives the high life and enjoys dishing the dirt on any celeb who takes her fancy. She ran an exposé on Alice's cheating husband, Jake, which wrecked their marriage. Alice, now a single mum and still smarting from Georgia's antics, retreats to Somerset. She wants nothing further to do with Georgia, although she's provided an unlikely stepping stone to bringing Jake and Alice back together - if Alice wants him that is.

Sunless Countries, The

Schroeder, Karl

In an ocean of weightless air where sunlight has never been seen, only the running lights of the city of Pacquaea glitter in the dark. One woman, Leal Hieronyma Maspeth, history tutor and dreamer, lives and dreams of love among the gas-lit streets and cafés. And somewhere in the abyss a great voice has begun speaking. As its cold words reach even to the city walls - and as outlying towns and travellers' ships start to mysteriously disappear - only Leal has the courage to try to understand the message thundering from the distance. Even the city's most famous and exotic visitor, the sun lighter and hero named Hayden Griffin, refuses to turn aside from his commission to build a new sun for a foreign nation. He will not become the hero that Leal knows the city needs; so in the end, it is up to her to listen, and ultimately reply, to the worldwasp.

Gates of Troy, The

Iliffe, Glyn

It was ten years ago that Odysseus started his rule of Ithaca and his reign has been one of peace and plenty. But across the seas, eyes meet across a burning fire and a long-forgotten oath begins to surface. When Paris of Troy meets Helen of Sparta the love affair of centuries begins. For the rest of Greece, it means war. Reminded of the sacred oath sworn, Odysseus and his captain of the guard, Eperitus, must gather their troops and journey to Aulis where the fleet of Greeks is gathering to begin their legendary journey to Troy. But a sleight to the gods keeps their ships trapped at harbour and only the greatest of sacrifices can set them free - the slaughter of an innocent girl. In a race against time, Odysseus and Eperitus pit themselves against Kings and Gods. But the gates of Troy are looming...

In 'Before the Big Bang', Brian Clegg explores the history of this remarkable concept. From the earliest creation myths, through Hershel's realisation that the Milky Way was one of many galaxies, to ongoing debates about Black Holes, this is an incredible look at the origins of the universe. But in classic scientist fashion Clegg challenges the notion of the "Big Bang" itself, and raises the deep philosophical question of why we might want to rethink the origin of the universe.

Afterbirth

Modisett, Dani Klein

'Afterbirth' is about what parenting is really like: full of inappropriate impulses and unbelievable frustrations. It's about how life for some parents changes for the worse after their kids are born. Or so it feels. It's about how not every three-year-old is delightful and about how sometimes when your kid is having a tantrum, you have to stifle the impulse to round-house him. The participants are some of the best comic writers today, turning their attention very close to home and sparing no one, particularly themselves.
