Taraborrelli, J Randy

The definitive biography of Michael Jackson by acclaimed biographer J Randy Taraborrelli.

So much has now been said and written about the life and career of Michael Jackson that it has become almost impossible to disentangle the man from the myth. This book is the fruit of over 30 years of research and hundreds of exclusive interviews with a remarkable level of access to the very closest circles of the Jackson family - including Michael himself. Cutting through tabloid rumours, J Randy Taraborrelli traces the real story behind the life of Michael Jackson, from his drilling as a child star through the blooming of his talent to his ever-changing personal appearance and bizarre publicity stunts.

This major biography includes the behind-the-scenes story to many of the landmarks in Jackson's life: his legal and commercial battles, his marriages, his passions and addictions, his children. Objective and revealing, it carries the hallmarks of all of Taraborrelli's bestsellers: impeccable research, brilliant storytelling and definitive documentation.

Michael Jackson: Making History
Grant, Adrian

The death of Michael Jackson, the self-styled King Of Pop, has shocked the world.

Acres of newsprint has now been devoted to reassessing his extraordinary career and lifestyle but above all he will be remembered as the greatest entertainer of his generation, a musical genius whose legacy lies not in the eccentric behaviour for which he was famous but for the trilogy of albums he recorded with producer Quincy Jones, of which 'Thriller' remains the bestselling album of all time.
